History

2026 Outlook

After 26 years of hunting the top spot, this year's Riverhounds are the first team in club history to enter the year as the top dog after capturing the 2025 USL Championship title.

A concerted effort was made to keep as much of the championship core together as possible, and a total of 12 players are back from last year's team, including seven starters and nine total players from the final last November in Tulsa. Among that group are veterans such as Robbie Mertz and captain Danny Griffin, as well as a core of pivotal pieces coming back for a second year — Beto Ydrach, Guillaume Vacter, Perrin Barnes and Charles Ahl among them.

With holes created by free agency, the team made moves to stay in championship contention. The 2023 Golden Boot and Player of the Year, Albert Dikwa, is back in Pittsburgh after two years away, and goalkeeper Nico Campuzano highlight the newcomers who will aim to make a repeat of 2025 a reality.

Positional Breakdown

GOALKEEPERS

After USL Championship Final MVP Eric Dick signed with his hometown Indy team, the Hounds turned to former Monterey Bay goalkeeper Campuzano — last year's leader in saves. He is joined by a pair of young players with time in the Philadelphia Union system and collegiately in the Big East, Budler (Akron) and Sheridan (Villanova).

Returns: None
Newcomers: Mitch Budler, Nico Campuzano, Mike Sheridan
Departures: Eric Dick, Ben Martino, Jacob Randolph

DEFENDERS

The returning group has extensive starting experience: Ydrach and Barnes started the 2025 Final, Osumanu is now a fourth-year Hounds player, and Vacter was a regular starter before his season ended through injury. That group is bolstered with the addition of Kelp, the Big Ten Defender of the Year who can play left or center back; Souza, a steady, three-year MLS Next Pro vet; and Mikoy, who brings height and strength from the college game.

Returns: Perrin Barnes, Illal Osumanu, Guillaume Vacter, Beto Ydrach
Newcomers: Lasse Kelp, Owen Mikoy, Victor Souza
Departures: Luke Biasi, Max Broughton, Sean Suber

MIDFIELDERS

The midfield returns run the range from attacking pieces like Ahl, Garcia and Mertz; two-way workers in Griffin, Sample and Walti; and dangerous left-sided piece Etou. Many of the newcomers also have significant skills getting forward, with Bassett doing it last year in MLS & Next Pro, Goldthorp in the Championship, and Neto and Viera also in the Big East Conference. Agostoni signs at age 16 as a homegrown USL Academy signing.

Returns: Charles Ahl, Junior Etou, Jorge Garcia, Danny Griffin, Robbie Mertz, Bradley Sample, Jackson Walti
Newcomers: Warren Agostoni, Sam Bassett, Eliot Goldthorp, Israel Neto, Max Viera
Departures: Jason Bouregy, Aidan O'Toole

FORWARDS

Only second-year pro Larsen returns from an attack that was streaky but inconsistent in 2025. The Hounds have a monopoly on 2023 Golden Boot winners after bringing back Dikwa, the Championship's top scorer for the Hounds that season, as well as Amann, the Player of the Year as top scorer in League One in 2023. Flowers-Gamboa is the team's second USL Academy signing, returning to his hometown club after a season with Texoma in League One.

Returns: Brigham Larsen
Newcomers: Trevor Amann, Albert Dikwa, Aldi Flowers-Gamboa
Departures: Bertin Jacquesson, Pablo Linzoin, Augi Williams

Positioned along the Monongahela River with the skyline of Pittsburgh overshadowing its pitch, F.N.B. Stadium has served as the home of Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC since its opening in 2013.

One of the premier venues in the Steel City, ground was broken for the building originally named Highmark Stadium on June 25, 2012. It was completed in April 2013 at a total cost of $10.2 million raised entirely through private investment. Upon completion, it was only the second team-owned and soccer-specific venue outside of the top division in U.S. soccer. The venue also has hosted a variety of other events, including high school football, college soccer and lacrosse, concerts and other unique entertainment.

The first match played at F.N.B. Stadium pitted the Hounds against their longtime rival, the Harrisburg City Islanders, on April 13, 2013. With a sellout crowd of 4,000 people in attendance — maximum capacity in the stadium's original configuration — José Angulo gave the Hounds the lead before Harrisburg rallied for a 2-1 win.

In 13 seasons played at F.N.B. Stadium, the Hounds have a 109-53-61 overall record at the venue. In 2018, the club hosted the first-ever playoff match on its turf — a 2-2 draw that saw the Hounds eliminated by Bethlehem Steel in a dramatic shootout, 8-7. The venue has since hosted six additional playoff matches, including three during the 2025 Eastern Conference Playoffs, which culminated with Robbie Mertz scoring the only goal of a 1-0 victory in front of a record 6,745 fans to send the Hounds to their first USL Championship Final.

At the time of its construction, the venue's FIFA 2-star certified artificial turf was one of only six fields to earn that designation in the United States. That certification allowed the stadium to host the biggest event of its opening year, a friendly match against English FA Cup holders Wigan Athletic, who topped the Hounds, 4-1, on July 19, 2013.

In addition to hosting a former Premier League side, F.N.B. Stadium and the Hounds have hosted MLS opponents on three separate occasions with the Hounds coming out victorious in two of those. D.C. United was the first to make the visit, needing extra time to top the Hounds, 3-1, on June 17, 2015. The Hounds earned their first home win over an MLS team when they defeated the Columbus Crew, 1-0, on May 24, 2023 in the Round of 16. That game was played before a then-record crowd of 6,107 who saw Albert Dikwa score the winner in the first half. High drama ensued in the most recent Hounds vs. MLS matchup, when Beto Ydrach's stoppage-time header sealed a 1-0 win over New York City FC in the Round of 32 on May 7, 2025.

F.N.B. Stadium underwent two seating additions in 2018. The first one involved placing seats along the Monongahela River, and the second addition expanded the grandstand on the East End of the venue prior to the team's first home playoff match that season. The East End stand is officially named the Paul Child Grandstand, in honor of the Pittsburgh soccer legend, 100 goal scorer of the original North American Soccer League and 2024 Riverhounds Hall of Fame inductee who served as both a coach and broadcaster with the Riverhounds.

Plans were announced in 2025 for F.N.B. Stadium to undergo an expansion that will bring stadium capacity to 15,000, which would allow the Hounds to join a Division 1 pro league under U.S. Soccer Pro League Standards, as well as giving F.N.B. Stadium the ability to host larger concerts and events.

2015 USL All-League First Team

Announced as the club's 11th head coach in its history on Dec. 19, 2025, Rob Vincent is beginning his first full season as head coach of Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC.

Late in the 2025 season, Vincent was named the team's acting head coach, and the Hounds put together a historic run to close the season. The team went unbeaten in seven matches with Vincent in charge, going 3-0-4 overall, and advanced throughout the USL Championship Playoffs — three times prevailing on penalty kicks — to win the club's first league title. With the victory on penalties over FC Tulsa in the Final, Vincent became the youngest head coach to win a league title at 35 years old.

Prior to assuming the head coaching role, Vincent spent two seasons on the Riverhounds staff under head coach Bob Lilley, a six-time Coach of the Year and the club's all-time leader in matches coached and wins. He made the leap to the First Team and Lilley's staff before the start of the 2024 season, which came after six seasons leading Riverhounds Academy teams competing in the Elite Clubs National League.

Vincent's career began as a youth player with Everton, Crewe Alexandra and Stockport County in England, before he came to the United States to play college soccer at the University of Charleston (W.Va.) from 2009-12. He starred for the Golden Eagles and was three times named a First Team Division II All-American.

Vincent signed with Hounds in 2013, the same year F.N.B. Stadium opened (then-known as Highmark Stadium), and he played three years for the club. In 2015, the midfielder had a breakout season with 21 goals in all competitions — still tied for the second-most in club history — and was named to the USL All-League First Team.

Prior to the 2016 season, MLS team D.C. United reached a transfer agreement with Hounds to bring Vincent to Washington, and by season's end, he was a regular starter for playoff-bound United. He began 2017 in a similar role, but he suffered a knee injury in the team's second match that ended his season.

In 2018, Vincent announced his retirement as a player and returned to the Hounds in his academy coaching role, which he held until joining the First Team staff.

→ Rob Vincent became the Hounds' 11th head coach in history during the offseason, one month after he became the youngest coach to win a USL Championship title while leading the Hounds on an acting basis.

Adam Mitchell - Assistant Coach

Adam Mitchell joins the Riverhounds staff this year after more than a decade of coaching experience at the college level, including the past seven years with nearby Duquesne University as an assistant under head coach Chase Brooks.

During his time at Duquesne, the Dukes advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament Final in 2021, hosted A-10 Tournament matches for the first time in 2022 and spent eight weeks ranked in the Division I national rankings, ending an 18-year drought without a Top 25 appearance for the Dukes.

In that same time span at Duquesne, the team produced a total of 13 all-conference selections; the 2023 A-10 Midfielder of the Year, Ask Ekeland; and the first First Round MLS SuperDraft pick in school history, Jayden Da.

First coming to the U.S. as a college player, Mitchell began at Ashland University before moving to Notre Dame College (Ohio), where he helped the Falcons reach two NCAA Division II Tournaments and earned Third Team All-America honors.

After school, he began his coaching career as an assistant coach with Lourdes University and Tiffin University before moving to Duquesne in 2019.

Jon Busch - Goalkeepers Coach

Jon Busch enters his fourth season with the Hounds after being hired in January 2023.

A 21-year professional as a player, Busch's most recent pro coaching position was Director of Goalkeeping for Scottish Premiership club Hibernian during the 2021-22 season. He also spent time coaching with Indy Eleven, where he wound down his career in a player/coach role.

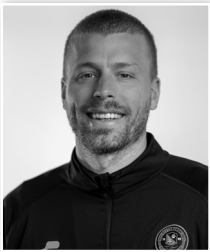

Prior to coaching, his lengthy playing career began in the A-League — the predecessor to the USL Championship — before spending 14 seasons with three clubs in Major League Soccer. He played for future Hounds coach Bob Lilley for one season with the Hershey Wildcats in 2001, and he was named A-League Goalkeeper of the Year while helping the team reach the league final that season. That helped propel him to MLS with the Columbus Crew from, where he played from 2002-06.

After the Crew, he joined the Chicago Fire. His 2008 season in Chicago was arguably his best, as he played every minute for the Fire and was named MLS Goalkeeper of the Year after leading the league in save percentage (.782) and tying for the lead in shutouts with 10.

His playing career continued with the San Jose Earthquakes from 2010-14 and one more season in 2015 with the Fire before joining Indy Eleven. In total, Busch played 309 matches in MLS and recorded 83 shutouts, still the sixth-most in the league's history.

During his time in MLS, Busch also was a regular in camp with the U.S. National Team under coach Bruce Arena, making one start in 2005 and recording a shutout in a 3-0 win over Colombia.

Dan Visser - Sporting Director

Dan Visser enters his 11th season with Riverhounds SC and his third as Sporting Director after originally joining the club midseason as an assistant coach in July 2016.

He first came to the club as part of head coach Dave Brandt's staff. Prior to Pittsburgh, Visser also served as an assistant coach under Brandt at the U.S. Naval Academy during its 2015 season.

From 2013-14, Visser was head coach at Eastern Nazarene College, and he began his coaching career as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Eastern University (Pa.).

The West Chester, Pa. native played collegiately as a midfielder at Messiah College for four seasons before graduating in 2008. During this period, the team won three national championships and accumulated an 89-6-2 record. The two-time team captain also received Regional All-America honors in 2007.

Visser graduated with bachelor's degrees in math and economics from Messiah, and he completed his Master of Business Administration while coaching at Eastern University.

Nico Campuzano is entering his first season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Campuzano led the USL Championship with 84 saves for Monterey Bay in 2025, posting a .677 save percentage across 28 matches in his lone season in California. It was his fourth team in as many seasons in the pro ranks, having debuted in 2022 with FC Cincinnati 2 in MLS Next Pro, spending 2023 with New England Revolution 2 — where he recorded six clean sheets in 12 regular-season starts — and moving to USL League One in 2024 with Lexington SC.

Prior to turning pro, Campuzano had a strong college career that began at the University of Portland in 2018-19 before coming to Pitt as a graduate transfer. With Pitt, he was the starting goalkeeper for the team as it reached the 2020 NCAA College Cup semifinals (played in Spring 2021 due to the pandemic), and he twice earned All-ACC honors, making the First Team in 2020 and Third Team in 2021.

A native of Los Corrales de Buelna on Spain's northern coast, Campuzano played his youth soccer with some of the country's most prestigious clubs, including Racing Santander near his hometown to begin his teen years and finishing with two seasons at Barcelona and one at Villarreal.

Danny Griffin is entering his seventh season overall with Riverhounds SC in 2026, returning to the club in 2023 by way of a transfer from Huntsville City FC of MLS Next Pro.

Griffin is going into his third season as the Riverhounds' captain, and he has been a mainstay in the Hounds' lineup going back to his 2020 rookie season. Entering this season, he had amassed 191 appearances for the club, good for fourth all-time, and he has missed only two league matches in his pro career. In his first three seasons in Pittsburgh, Griffin established a club record by appearing in 85 consecutive league matches — regular-season and postseason combined — a streak only interrupted by his brief stint with Huntsville.

He also led the Hounds in minutes played in 2024, 2022 and 2021; and in 2022, he set a Hounds record with 3,055 regular-season minutes played — five minutes short of the complete 34-game season. With Pittsburgh, Griffin has 17 goals and 10 assists, including the lone goal in the Hounds' 1-0 road win over the New England Revolution in the 2023 U.S. Open Cup.

Before arriving in Pittsburgh, the Providence College product was drafted by Columbus Crew SC with the 49th overall selection in the second round of the 2020 MLS SuperDraft.

Perrin Barnes is entering his second season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Signing with the club before the start of the 2025 season, Barnes quickly worked his way into a regular role, starting 19 of 22 league matches and the final three playoff matches of the team's championship run. He also tallied his first professional goal last season against Detroit.

Barnes began his professional career in 2023 with Huntsville City FC in MLS Next Pro, where he made 16 appearances and recorded one assist from his outside back position. After missing time with an injury in 2024, Barnes made it back on the field with Grove United in the National Premier Soccer League before joining the Hounds.

Prior to turning pro, Barnes played four years at Butler University, where he was a Big East Championship All-Tournament selection and a United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-American for the Bulldogs.

Lasse Kelp is entering his first season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Last fall, Kelp completed his college career at the University of Maryland, where he was the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and a MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalist as one of the top 15 players in college soccer in 2025. The Terrapins conceded just 12 goals in the regular season last fall and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight before losing to eventual champion Washington.

Kelp also was selected in the third round of this year's MLS SuperDraft but went unsigned by D.C. United.

Kelp began his college career at the University of Maryland-Baltimore County, where he was a three-year starter for the Retrievers. Prior to coming to the U.S., Kelp spent the last three years of his youth career with SC Fortuna K6In in his native Germany, appearing for the club at both the Under-19 and Under-23 levels.

Trevor Amann is entering his first season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Amann has been a decorated goal scorer throughout his career and joins the Hounds after splitting last season between Sacramento Republic FC and FC Tulsa, where he appeared as a late substitute in the USL Championship Final won by the Hounds on penalties.

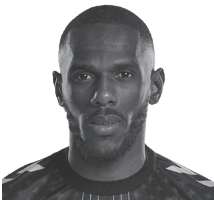

The 2023 USL League One Player of the Year and Golden Boot winner with the Northern Colorado Hailstorm, Amann scored a record 23 regular-season goals as part of a 27-goal season overall. That breakout season led to his signing in the Championship with Sacramento, where he scored 12 goals in 45 appearances over a season and a half before a transfer move to Tulsa.

Amann's knack for finding the net goes back to his college days, where he scored 49 goals over five seasons, the first two at Colorado School of Mines and the last three at Midwestern State (Texas), where he earned All-American honors in 2021.

While in college, he also featured in the amateur ranks in the National Premier Soccer League. Amann led Detroit City FC in scoring in 2018 before their club's leap to the professional ranks, and he pushed the Denton Diablos to an NPSL title in 2021 with two goals in the championship game to earn Man of the Match honors.

Junior Etou is entering his fourth season with Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC in 2026.

A veteran midfielder with a lengthy resume spanning the USL Championship and French leagues, Etou entered the season with 99 appearances in his first three years with the Hounds. He has become a key part of the squad in a left-sided wing back/midfield role, recording three goals and nine assists.

In 2024, he earned more penalty kicks for his team than any other player in the USL Championship with five, and in his first year, he scored 21 seconds into a win over the Charleston Battery to set a new record for the fastest strike in Hounds and F.N.B. Stadium history.

He spent the 2022 season with the Tampa Bay Rowdies, where he made 24 appearances in all competitions in a defensive midfield role. Before joining the Rowdies, Etou played in 2020 and 2021 for the Charlotte Independence, where he recorded 23 appearances and one goal with his first American club.

Etou began his career as a teenage amateur with J.A. Drancy in the French fifth division and moving on to Monts d'Or Azergues. In 2018, he broke into the professional ranks with AS Béziers in Ligue 2. In his one full season before making the move to the U.S., Etou appeared in 17 league matches and in the Coupe de France for Béziers.

Albert Dikwa returns to Riverhounds SC in 2026 after signing back with the team where he previously played for four seasons from 2020-23.

Dikwa — affectionately known as “Chico” — spent the past two seasons with Rhode Island FC, where he had 19 goals and 10 assists in 69 appearances and helped the team reach the 2024 USL Championship Final and 2025 Eastern Conference Final.

In 2023, the last season of his first stint in Pittsburgh, Dikwa had a career season with 20 goals, winning the USL Championship Player of the Year and Golden Boot while powering the Hounds to the Players’ Shield. That breakout came on the heels of 11 goals and four assists in 2022. Upon his initial departure from the Hounds, Dikwa had 37 goals wearing the black & yellow, the second-most in club history.

He came to Pittsburgh from Saint Louis FC, where he recorded 44 appearances for the club from 2018-19, and he began his pro career signing with Orlando City B directly out of high school in 2017. In his youth career and early days as a pro, the Garoua, Cameroon native also made six appearances for the Cameroon U-20 National Team.

Robbie Mertz is entering his seventh year with Riverhounds SC in 2026. It is his second stint with the team, after he was re-acquired via transfer from Atlanta United 2 on July 20, 2022.

Mertz, a graduate of Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh's South Hills, was a fourth-round MLS draft pick of the Colorado Rapids in 2019 after his college career at Michigan, but he signed his first professional contract back home in Pittsburgh. Between the Hounds' 2019 season atop the Eastern Conference and the pandemic-shortened 2020 season, Mertz posted 11 goals and eight assists as he established himself as one of the team's best attacking options out of the midfield.

In 2021, he signed with Atlanta as a free agent and was an integral part of their team for a season and a half. He recorded four goals and 11 assists in 48 matches and wore the captain's armband in 2022 before his mid-year transfer. Since returning to the Hounds, Mertz has been a mainstay in the midfield, leading the team in assists in 2024 and playing a key role in winning the 2023 Players' Shield and 2025 USL Championship title.

In total with the Hounds, Mertz has 23 goals and 22 assists — one of only three players with at least 20 of each in team history — and he enters the year with 173 appearances, fifth in team history.

Bradley Sample is entering his third season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

In two years with the Hounds, Sample has established himself as one of the team's most reliable midfield options, whether in a starting role or off the bench. He already has 68 appearances for the team, 39 of them starts, which includes starting all four matches of the team's 2025 USL Championship Playoffs run.

As a rookie, Sample posted four assists, and his first pro goal was a Goal of the Week-winning header on Sept. 7 against Rhode Island FC.

Sample was a workhorse in the midfield for the University of Louisville, where he finished his career in 2023 second in matches played and third in minutes all-time. The Cardinals reached the NCAA Tournament four times in his career, advancing as far as the third round in 2019 with Sample as a freshman starter.

Sample posted four goals and seven assists in his college career while operating primarily as a holding midfielder for the Cardinals.

Sam Bassett is entering his first season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Bassett spent last season with the Colorado Rapids as a homegrown signing, splitting time between the MLS club and their reserve team in MLS Next Pro, Rapids 2. He made 15 appearances for the Rapids across all competitions, recording one assist, and he posted three goals and seven assists in 16 matches for Rapids 2.

His career to this point has been based in his home state as a product of the Rapids Academy and a standout college player for the University of Denver. Bassett scored 24 goals in 77 games as a college player, winning the Summit League Midfielder of the Year award in both 2023 and 2024 and leading the Pioneers to the NCAA College Cup semifinals in 2024.

Bassett made the leap to the pros immediately after his senior season and made his pro debut last March with Rapids 2. He scored his first pro goal in only his second appearance, finding the net early in a match against Real Monarchs, and on April 5, he was pulled into the club's First Team to make his MLS debut against the Vancouver Whitecaps.

Mitch Budler is entering his first season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Budler was a four-year starter in college at Akron, recording 36 clean sheets and allowing only 65 goals across 76 starts on his way to being a two-time Big East Goalkeeper of the Year and a Third Team All-American as a junior in 2024. With Budler in goal, the Zips won the 2022 Mid-American Conference regular season title and reached the NCAA Tournament three times, advancing all the way to the Elite Eight last fall.

Prior to college, Budler previously appeared in the USL Championship as an academy player with Philadelphia Union II in 2020. Budler made six appearances that year, including one start at Highmark Stadium against the Riverhounds on Aug. 1 of that season.

Warren Agostoni is entering his first season with the Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Agostoni is the fourth player to sign a USL Academy contract with the Hounds and the third former member of the Riverhounds Development Academy to do so. Hailing from nearby Latrobe, Agostoni was a standout player for the RDA at both the Pre-ECNL and ECNL youth levels.

In 2025, Agostoni left Pittsburgh to pursue an opportunity to join the academy of MLS team Austin FC. After a year with the Texas club, he returned to the Hounds with the chance to join the First Team on an amateur contract. At age 16 upon signing, he is the youngest player ever to sign with the Hounds.

Guillaume Vacter is entering his second season with the Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Vacter was a late signing after the season opener in 2025, but he quickly became part of the team's regular lineup at center back. He started 24 consecutive matches in league and postseason play, picking up his first professional goal in a draw with Orange County along the way, before his run of starts was ended by an injury that caused him to miss the team's final three playoff matches.

He first arrived in the U.S. to play for Rider University in the Spring 2021 season, during which he started five matches and scored once for the Broncs. He then transferred to Connecticut, where he appeared in 64 matches, starting 56 of them, and he was among the top five in minutes played for the Huskies all four of his seasons there. He had two goals and an assist with Connecticut, and his defending helped the Huskies to a .500 or better record each year.

Mike Sheridan is entering his first season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Sheridan spent the past two seasons with Philadelphia Union II, where he made 12 appearances and recorded a pair of clean sheets for the MLS Next Pro team after making his professional debut in March 2024.

Sheridan began his college career at Saint Joseph's College (Maine), where he was named the 2022 Great Northeast Athletic Conference Goalkeeper of the Year after allowing only 14 goals in 19 games with five shutouts and sharing another three combined clean sheets.

He then transferred close to home for his final college season in 2023 at Villanova, where he was a teammate of Hounds midfielder Jorge Garcia.

Aldi Flowers-Gamboa is entering his first season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Flowers-Gamboa is the team's second USL Academy signing of 2026 and fifth overall. He returned to his home city after spending last fall with Texoma FC in USL League One, also on an academy contract. He made his senior-level debut with the Texas club, making five appearances, including his first start in the season finale last Oct. 25.

Prior to his time in League One, Flowers-Gamboa played locally at Plum High School before leaving to join the FC Cincinnati youth system in 2023. He spent two years in the youth sides of the MLS organization before making the jump to First Team play in League One.

Illal Osumanu is in his fourth season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

The Ghanaian defender has appeared in 64 matches during his time with the Hounds, being equally adept at coming off the bench to close a match out — as he did in three of the Hounds' four playoff matches on the way to the 2025 title — or serving as an everyday starter, which he did in 2024 when he started 29 league matches and was second on the team in minutes played

In his first season with the team in 2023, Osumanu was limited to nine matches with six starts, but he scored a memorable first goal for the club — a 90th-minute header to claim a 2-1 win over the San Diego Loyal.

Prior to Pittsburgh, Osumanu played for Union Omaha in USL League One. With the Owls, he made a total of 32 appearances between regular season and postseason, and he played every minute of Omaha's 2021 playoff run to the League One title.

Before joining the pro ranks in Omaha, Osumanu played college soccer in West Virginia, first for the University of Charleston in 2016 before transferring to Marshall University, where he played three seasons. His time at Charleston finished with a trip to the NCAA Division II National Championship game, while with the Thundering Herd, he played in 59 matches and helped the team to its first Conference USA title and first NCAA Tournament appearance.

Eliot Goldthorp is entering his first season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

Goldthorp split last season in the USL Championship between Lexington SC and a loan spell with FC Tulsa. In total, he made 34 appearances with 14 starts across all competitions, scoring three goals and adding four assists.

Capable of playing as an attacking midfielder or on the wing, Goldthorp spent most of his youth career with Leeds United before making the move to nearby Bradford City, where he made his senior-level debut in 2018, two months before his 18th birthday.

After a series of loan spells from Bradford and three total seasons playing in the English leagues, Goldthorp moved to the U.S. to attend college. He played one season at Old Dominion before breaking out with two huge seasons at Hofstra, where he posted 25 goals and 21 assists in 43 matches and was a two-time All-American selection, including First Team honors in 2023.

Goldthorp was then selected by the Vancouver Whitecaps in the second round of the 2024 MLS Draft and made his pro debut with the Whitecaps 2 of MLS Next Pro. He scored 10 goals in 23 MLS Next Pro matches and also appeared once for the MLS side in a Leagues Cup match against Club Tijuana before making the move to Lexington before last season.

Jackson Walti is entering his third season with Riverhounds SC in 2026.

In two years with the Hounds, Walti has made 64 appearances in all competitions, starting 48 of those. The holding midfielder has three goals and an assist for the Hounds, and he earned USL Championship Team of the Week honors in the penultimate week of the 2025 season.

In 2023, his first pro season, Walti began the year with Austin's reserve side in MLS Next Pro before being loaned within the league to Colorado Rapids 2. He finished the year with 20 appearances (nine starts) and one assist between the two clubs.

Walti has been a part of a renaissance for soccer in the Pittsburgh; before winning the 2025 title with the Hounds, he first helped the University of Pittsburgh reach the NCAA College Cup semifinals for the first time, doing so in both 2020 (Spring 2021) and 2022. He finished as the school's career leader in minutes played before being the second-round pick of Austin FC in the 2023 MLS SuperDraft.

History

THE TITLE COMES HOME TO PITTSBURGH

The 2025 season had twists and turns that could have led to a nightmare season, but once the dust had settled, the Hounds had the dream ending the organization and its fans had long sought after.

Coming back off a first-round exit in the postseason, the team went through an up-and-down start over the first three months. The high point of the early season, without a doubt, was the team's performance in the U.S. Open Cup, where Beto Ydrach's stoppage-time winner sent the Hounds through 1-0 at home over MLS side New York City FC. The run came to a close in the Round of 16 against the Philadelphia Union, but the Hounds secured their spot as the cup's farthest advancing lower division team for the second time in three years.

As often was the case under head coach Bob Lilley, the Hounds began to click as the summer months hit, putting together a run of nine matches without a loss from mid-June to mid-August. But that led to a tumultuous September in which the team faced controversy late in a road win at Hartford and last-minute schedule changes when a match against Las Vegas was postponed and pushed back a day less than 24 hours before the scheduled kickoff time.

The unanticipated hurdles hit their peak on Oct. 10 when Lilley was placed on administrative leave, giving assistant coach Rob Vincent the reins as acting head coach one day before a crucial home match against Indy Eleven. The Hounds responded impeccably to the adversity, taking a 2-1 win over Indy to clinch their ninth consecutive playoff berth, and then closing the regular season with a win at Monterey Bay and a draw against Phoenix to earn the No. 4 seed in the Eastern Conference.

The playoffs began with no shortage of drama, as the Hounds hosted Hartford with the specter of their contentious September meeting looming. The match went without a goal for 120 minutes, but the Hounds put together a perfect showing at the penalty spot to advance, 4-2. Next up was Detroit, which had upset top-seeded Louisville, and the Hounds again kept a clean sheet for 120 minutes before taking care of business on spot kicks, 4-3. That put the team in its first-ever Eastern Conference Final, where they faced the defending East champs, Rhode Island. Penalty drama was not needed this time, as Robbie Mertz scored early in the second half for a 1-0 win secured by the Pittsburgh native in front of a stadium-record crowd of 6,745.

Everything then came down to Nov. 22, when the team went on the road for the first time in the playoffs to face FC Tulsa for the USL Championship title. As with the first two playoff matches, the Hounds were resolute defensively, with goalkeeper Eric Dick producing five saves in an MVP performance. Neither team found the net, setting up a third shootout in four matches, but the Hounds leaned on their experience and composure. Bertin Jacquesson, Robbie Mertz, Chase Boone and Sean Suber converted the first four kicks, and Dick made one save to send Ydrach to the spot with a chance to clinch the title. Ydrach buried his shot down the middle of the goal, sparking wild celebrations among the Hounds fans who made it to Oklahoma and those watching the nationally televised final on CBS at home. After 26 seasons, the Hounds were champions at last!

CLASS OF 2024

Randy Dedini, Paul Child and Gary DePalma

The Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC Hall of Fame added three new members with its Class of 2024, welcoming former players Randy Dedini and Gary DePalma alongside former coach, broadcaster and club builder Paul Child. The next scheduled induction for the Class of 2026 is slated to take place this year, with inductees to be announced.

Dedini, the team's primary goalkeeper from 1999-2003, still holds the club's career records for wins by a goalkeeper (57) and shutouts (29), and his 136 saves in the Hounds' inaugural season remain the single-season mark in that category. Hailed for both his fiery competitiveness and veteran leadership on a young team, Dedini played a critical role in the team's early successes.

DePalma, a midfielder/winger for the Hounds from 1999-2004, followed Justin Evans as the second Pittsburgh-raised player to enter the Hall of Fame. During his years with the Hounds, DePalma established himself as a constant attacking threat, and by the end of his tenure, he was the club's career leader in both appearances (154) and assists (23) — both totals that remained in the top five in team history upon his induction.

Child, one of the great goal scorers of the original North American Soccer League and a star of the Pittsburgh Spirit indoor team of the 1980s, was an assistant on the original Hounds coaching staff in 1999 and has been synonymous with soccer in Pittsburgh for more than four decades. Among the many roles he would fill included Hounds Youth Director and broadcaster, as he and fellow Hall of Famer and friend Gene Klein became the voices of the Hounds to launch the Highmark Stadium era.
